1. The Vidin Symphony Orchestra has 70 pieces and is completely supported by the State. The principal activity of the orchestra is to give concerts. These are held in the city theater. The group also periodically "tours" other areas. Guest instrumentalists and vocalists from other theaters appear with the orchestra several times a month.
2. Orchestra members are paid between 800 and 1,000 leva per month. Admission prices to the concerts are very low, four or five leva per ticket, for the propaganda aim of bringing musical culture to the people.
